

ROOM RESERVATION POLICIES FOR ISPS ROOM A001

Institution for Social and Policy Studies
Yale University, 77 Prospect Street

(Seminar-style Classroom; Max. Capacity 49)

Building Access and Security

- All event attendees must use the main front entrance to ISPS located at 77 Prospect Street.
- NEVER prop open doors to the outside to allow entrance
- Events may only occur during regular business hours
 - Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. during the academic year
 - Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. during summer months

Please indicate if you would like to have access to the courtyard patio outside of A001.

Maximum Capacity

- Optimal capacity: 25-30 people
- Maximum capacity: 49 people (per Yale University Fire Marshall)

This room capacity is not to be exceeded.

Room Seating

- This room will seat thirty (30) people comfortably
- Additional folding chairs are available at the bottom of the main stairwell.

Please return all folding chairs to the storage cart after use.

Furniture

This room is normally set up with a central seminar table (seating 18). Furniture includes:

- Six (6) movable tables that can be reconfigured to accommodate different event formats
- Seven (7) additional movable tables (seating 12) located along the walls at the perimeter of the room for seating or catering
- A speaker's podium

Please return all furniture to its original position at the end of your event.

Time Allowance

- Your reservation time slot should include allowances for set-up and clean-up.
- At least 10 minutes MUST be allotted between functions for attendees to enter/exit the space.

Please do not allow caterers to set up before your scheduled time or allow your event to run later than your reserved time.

Technology

A001 is equipped with a classroom AV system run from a touchscreen control panel at the speaker's podium that includes:

- Motorized retractable screen
- Projector
- In-room computer with monitor, keyboard, and mouse controls (requires Yale login credentials)
- Cables for hooking up a personal laptop computer (HDMI and USB-C)
- Microphones: 1 podium microphone, 2 wireless hand-held microphones, and 2 lavalier microphones (only 2 of these devices can be used at the same time)

If you require additional audiovisual services or assistance, please contact Yale Classroom Support Services at 203-432-2650.

There is also a dry-erase whiteboard at the front of the room.

Catering

Catering is allowed in Room A002, and tables are provided for this purpose. Caterers should enter via the 77 Prospect Street main entrance, pass through the ISPS Common Room, and use the elevator to the lower level. Tables used for food or beverage service must be covered with plastic or cloth linens.

Food should not be transported over the stone tile stairways. Please report any major spills or mishaps with food/beverages immediately to avoid permanent damage to carpets or furniture.

NOTE: You are responsible for all catering arrangements associated with your event including receipt of the delivery, set-up, and clean-up. You are also responsible for enforcing State laws and Yale policy if you will be serving alcoholic beverages during your event.

Trash Disposal

There is 1 trash container in Room A001 (additional containers are available upon request).

After your event:

- All trash MUST be removed from the container(s) and a fresh liner placed in each. Extra liners can be found in the bottom of the trash containers.
- If the trash contains liquids (beverages, salad dressing, sauce, etc.), please double-bag to avoid leakage.
- All trash bags must be placed in the large trash bin at the bottom of the back staircase.
- Recycling containers do not have to be emptied. Please do not place items with food waste in the recycling container.

You are responsible for all post-event trash disposal. Additionally, leftover food/beverages must be removed from the building.

First-time Initial Orientation

When using ISPS for the first time (or if a returning group is being run by new people), the person in charge of the event is required to meet with an ISPS staff person for a brief orientation prior to the event.

After submitting the Room Reservation Form for ISPS Room A001, please contact Megan Butler to schedule a time. (megan.butler@yale.edu)

COA Requirement

Although there are no regular fees charged for room reservations at ISPS, we require a departmental COA in advance if additional custodial services are necessary.

ISPS Staff Support: ISPS staff can only provide limited support in addressing unexpected difficulties or troubleshooting problems with the AV systems. We cannot provide regular administrative assistance.

You are responsible for bringing photocopied materials, door signs, or any other supplies necessary for your event. We do not have a computer kiosk or photocopy machine available for general use.

Cancelation

If you must cancel or change a room reservation for any reason, please notify Megan Butler as soon as possible. (megan.butler@yale.edu)

Smoking is not allowed anywhere inside or near the ISPS building at any time.

Check List as You Leave the Room:

- End the event to accommodate clean-up and departure in time allowed.
- Major spills or messes have been reported to ISPS staff.
- All food has been properly disposed of.
- All trash has been removed and placed in the appropriate place.
- A clean trash bag has been installed in the trash container.
- All audiovisual equipment has been turned off and returned to its original position.
- All furniture has been returned to its original position.
- Additional folding chairs have been returned to their cart in the main stairwell.
- Whiteboard has been erased (if it was used).
- All doors to the outside are closed and secured, and all event attendees have exited the building at the main entrance.
